TRAUMA PROGRAM – Carrie DeJong – March 24-28, 2016

Preference will be given to participants who have completed Modules 1 & 2, but we encourage all interested to apply.

Understanding the source of pain or trauma can sometimes be the key needed to unlock the path to eating disorder recovery.

How has trauma impacted your life? How are you now ready to explore and discover your inner strengths to develop resources to overcome the effects of trauma in your life?

Use additional sheets if necessary.
